This sample application form is for information only and all applications must be made via the online application system.

Useful information before you start your application

Before you start your application:

1. Read and accept the Applicant Terms and Conditions when prompted.
2. Make sure that you are eligible for the category you are considering applying for. Read the eligibility criteria carefully, if you are deemed ineligible you may be moved to another category where you would be eligible, or your application may be discounted altogether. If you are not sure whether you are eligible, check with the competition organiser before completing your application.
3. To avoid duplication in your responses, read all the questions before you start. For most categories each question covers a different aspect of your business, e.g.
 - a. Question 1 – Top Qualities
e.g. unique selling points, strengths and the essence of the business
 - b. Question 2 – Recent Improvements
e.g. business developments and improvements over the last two years
 - c. Question 3 – Results
e.g. recent successes from across the business – providing figures where relevant
 - d. Question 4 – Future Plans
e.g. plans to develop and promote the business over the next year
4. Read the guidance information starting ‘judges will be looking for . . .’ for suggestions on what to include in your answers.
5. By setting up an account you can save your work and come back to it later – you don’t have to start and submit your application in one sitting.
6. Take your time but be mindful of the closing date for applications.
7. Be aware of the word limits, they are exact.
8. Proof your entry before submitting.

Good luck!

Eligibility criteria

- Directly involved in tourism, making a contribution to the visitor economy with a significant proportion of business generated by people visiting from outside the local area.
- Meets the visitor attraction definition:
“...a permanently established excursion destination, a primary purpose of which is to allow access for entertainment, interest or education and can include places of worship; not primarily a retail or food service outlet or a venue for sporting, theatrical or film performances. It must be open to the public, with or without prior booking, for published periods each year, and should be capable of attracting day visitors or tourists as well as local residents.”
- Attracts 75,000 visitors or more per year, or employs more than 10 full-time equivalent members of staff
- Is capable of attracting day visitors, tourist and local residents
- May occasionally require pre-booking for a visit or activity
- Retail outlets, sporting venues and theatres are not eligible to apply unless there is also a tour, museum or exhibition element included
- Guided tours that are not based within a visitor attraction should apply for the relevant Experience of the Year category
- Businesses that are eligible to apply to both the small and large visitor attraction of the year categories, must choose the one that best suits their business and only enter one
- Businesses that serve food must have a minimum food hygiene rating of three out of five. The competition organisers reserve the right to refuse an application if this minimum requirement is not met at any point prior to the awards ceremony. An exception is made for new businesses who have not yet been graded.
- Businesses that have been trading for at least three months and up to two years when applications open, are strongly recommended to apply to the New Tourism Business of the Year category before considering applying to any other categories
 - For the purpose of eligibility for this competition, ‘trading’ means serving customers. If the business has not been trading this long, then they will need to wait to apply to the competition in 2026/27
- Applications from a chain or group operator must relate to a single site and not multiple sites.
