This is York: Where Stories Come to Life

Put Your Business at the Heart of York's National Story

Join our flagship national campaign and become part of York's cinematic identity through Starring York — the creative theme that frames the city as a living film world rich with atmosphere, character and unforgettable moments. This year-round campaign invites visitors to see York as the setting of their own story, and positions your business as one of the starring features in that experience.

Through high-impact video, targeted digital advertising, PR, influencer activity and out-of-home moments, the campaign inspires short breaks, cultural escapes and romantic getaways. It reaches hundreds of thousands of engaged followers across social media, email and visityork.org, all actively looking for places to stay, things to do and ways to make their visit memorable.

With dedicated campaign hub pages, tailored storytelling and the strength of the Starring York creative direction, your business is woven into the narrative that shapes how audiences discover the city.

Whether you join as a Key Partner or a Supporter, you'll receive multi-channel exposure that lifts your profile, increases visibility and places you firmly within York's year-round national story.
