Introducing the Snooks Trail, an exciting new character trail organised by Make It York in collaboration with charity partner St Leonard's Hospice.

This trail will take you on a captivating journey through York's historic cobbled streets and hidden gardens.

Prepare to be enchanted as you encounter 21 Snooks scattered throughout the city. These unique sculptures, sponsored by local businesses, have been brought to life by talented artists. Each with its own identity and style - which will be your favourite?

When you need to refuel, the Shambles Food Court offers the finest food-to-go. If you lose your way while exploring the city in search of the Snooks, then our friendly team at the Visitor Information Centre on Parliament Street will be your guide and help put you back on track.

SNOOKS

About the Snooks

Snooks are a bookish breed, often found in cosy corners with their faces buried inside the pages of a good book. They've been here in York for a long time, as long as even The Norman House (the oldest building in York) but they are a little more hidden away than the historic sights of the city that you're familiar with. But recently sightings of Snooks have skyrocketed, and it looks like these friendly folk have been enjoying some sightseeing around the city walls.

First Bus, York Park & Ride
Snooks are committed to minimising their environmental footprint and prefer to travel by public transport. Follow in their footsteps and travel from one of the six Park & Ride sites, including Poppleton Bar where Snook number 21 will be. You can park securely for free and catch one of the frequent electric buses into the city, ensuring a hassle-free and eco-conscious day out.
